

A. Baron, representing himself to be an agent for the Chicago Inter Ocean, is in jail at Taylorville for crooked work at that place. He is wanted in Decatur for shady transactions. He made a contract with A. Wait of the Arcade, to write up the establishment in the Inter Ocean and furnish Mr. Wait with several thousand copies of the paper, and he received $20 in advance. Mr. Wait taking Baron's receipt as agent for the Inter Ocean. Then he stopped at the Hotel Brunswick and failed to pay $5.50 due the proprietor. Mr. Wait and Mr. Horne got out state warrants for Baron yesterday, and they went to Taylorville to see Baron. He will probably be brought to Decatur to be prosecuted. At the present writing it looks as though Baron is good for a journey to Joliet.

Pulled at Feoria.

Recently two toughs arrived here from Decatur and essayed to run houses of ill-fame. The police thought it was bad enough for women to run joints of this character, but when men decided to branch out into the business, concluded it was time to pull the places. In the raid William H. Riley, May Riley and Dot a Brown were captured in one place and S. Butts and Alice Butts in the other. Riley pled guilty to keeping a disorderly house and went to the work house for fifty-eight days. May Riley paid $7.00. Dot a Brown went up to eighteen days, while S. Butts paid a fine of $27.00, and Alice Butts $7.00.—Peo Transcript.

OPPOSING ARMIES.

Chinese and Japanese Armies Face Each Other

FROM OPPOSITE BANKS OF THE YALU.

The Chinese Working Day and Night to Strengthen Their Defenses—Japanese Awaiting Reinforcements—A Decisive Attack Expected.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—A dispatch to the Central News from Wu-Ju, dated Monday, says: "The two opposing armies still face each other on the banks of the Yalu river. The Chinese have not fired a shot, but work night and day strengthening their defenses. Count Yamagata, the Japanese commander-in-chief, is awaiting the arrival of heavier artillery before attacking the Chinese position."

Japanese scouts estimate that the Chinese force altogether numbers 25,000. The scouts have brought in detailed information as to the condition of the Chinese defenses, showing that they are not so strong as the first reports indicated. The Chinese artillery is shown to be less formidable than the Japanese had supposed. A decisive attack is expected shortly. Various indications justify the belief that the chief stand of the Chinese will be at Kubechano."

A dispatch from Tokio says that several hundred Chinese prisoners who were taken at the battle of Ping Yang arrived in Tokio yesterday. Crowds were in the streets to see the captives, and followed them from the station to the prisons. The crowds were quiet and orderly, indulging in no insults or signs of exultation. The captives were distributed among several military stations.

The Japanese legation in London has received advice to the effect that the Japanese transport steamer Ariaki Maru has arrived at Yokohama from Hong Kong. A Chinese gunboat left Hong Kong a few hours before the Ariaki Maru, but, contrary to expectation, made no attempt to engage the transport.

A DISAPPOINTING VERDICT.

Light Penalty for Heavy Crimes Committed in Cameroon.

BERLIN, Oct. 17.—The court of discipline at Potsdam has finished the trial of Herr Leist, late chancellor of the German colony of the Cameroons, who was charged with numerous acts of cruelty upon the natives, in his jurisdiction, brutally flogging women, etc. The judgment of the court is that Leist be transferred to another post and pay the costs of his trial. The finding of the court is disappointing, as the public prosecutor had demanded his dismissal from the service, and it was generally believed that the court would so decide.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 17.—In the presence of 2,000 people at the Newburg half-mile track, yesterday afternoon, Louis Gimm, of the Cleveland Wheel club, finished his twenty-four-hour bicycle ride against the American record. The best previous distance for the even twenty-four hours was 374 miles, 1,005 yards, made by F. Ed Spooner, of Chicago. Gimm covered this with a good margin, and when he stepped from his wheel at exactly 5 o'clock last evening he had ridden 383 miles, 1,490 yards, and was in fairly good condition at the finish. He lost fifty-three minutes Monday night by reason of rain.

SINCE the exposure of the corruptions of the New York Tammany the campaigners in Decatur who lauded Tammany by representing it on a float at the jubilee demonstration over the success of the party in 1892, have as little to say about it as they have of the "wildcat show" in the same procession; and are as tired of both as they are of the Democratic soup houses that followed. This is a tiresome year for Democratic campaigners.

BLOOMINGTON Pantagraph. The Democratic leaders down in Mr. Springer's district have been driven to desperate straits to prevent voters from listening to Republican speeches. Two Republican speakers had an appointment for a mining town in Sangamon county the other night, but when they arrived they found that a couple of the employees at the state house had worked a smooth game to defeat their plans. The two agents of the Democrats had stationed themselves at the door of the hall, and as the miners came up they informed them that there was plenty of free beer down in the woods near by that had been sent from Springfield by an evening train. To thus insult voters by presuming that the present enjoyment of a glass of beer was of more account to them than the discussion of questions affecting their wages was quite consistent with the Democratic conception of the laboringman's real wants. The scheme to thus divert the attention of workmen away from the vital issues of the campaign will not be effective, and their ballots will rebuke the party that attempts it. An appeal strictly to the gustatory nerves, at a time when the reason and common sense of the voters are in such active operation, must necessarily fail.

The New Tariff Disappointing.
The new tariff bill is making a wretched showing by way of furnishing government receipts at the custom houses, and the tariff reformers are very much distressed about it. The receipts in the treasury under the first month's operations of the new law fell over $7,500,000 short of the expenditures, and the present indications are that the month of October will be more unsatisfactory still. It will not be a matter of much surprise to see the new law, which produced a deficit of $7,701,730 in its first month, bring a deficit of at least $10,000,000 in its second month. This falling off in the second month is indicated by the fact that the first month had the rush of goods sent in under the lower duties of the new law to get the market. As before stated this condition of things is discouraging to the Democratic leaders who expected that the lower duties would largely increase importations and thus swell receipts in the treasury. That this should result in increased revenue seems very logical and there was good reason from the Democratic standpoint that the new law would operate that way.

But like all other Democratic theories of government this was defective in this particular. When a Democratic leader "reforms the tariff," as he chooses to call it, he assumes always that business will continue in this country under a tariff for revenue only just the same as it does under "protection," which is a lamentable delusion and a fatal error. The moment a tariff for revenue only is enacted or it is quite certain such a law will be enacted the manufacturers of this country are compelled to limit their output, just as they have done in the last two years. This throws millions of men and millions of dollars out of employment and seriously affects the consuming power of our people and they are unable to consume either foreign or home manufactures. The result, therefore, of non-consumption must be felt as seriously in the receipts of the government as in the receipts of the general business of the country. This fact has been demonstrated for the past 18 months. The deficiencies in the treasury ever since the Democrats have been in power have all been due to losses in revenue on account of the limitations put upon the power of the people to consume.

Springer at the Shops.
Springfield Journal: William M. Springer was conducted to the Wabash shops yesterday by Charles F. Lape, and was there turned over to a foreman who conducted him through the shops and introduced him to the men at work. One of these men speaking of the visit, said: "I had no fault to find with Mr. Springer's coming down to get acquainted with the men, but it is strange that during all the years of his running for congress he never before deemed it of enough importance to make our acquaintance. That was in the days when he felt sure that he would be elected, anyhow, and he didn't care to bother about shaking a lot of sweaty, dusty hands of Wabash employees. A number of men who have been employed in the shops for many years said it was the first time they had ever been introduced to him. It was the first time I ever saw him there and I have been there for a long time."

Thomas B. Reed on Adlai.
In his New York speech Thomas B. Reed, who stands in his relation to the Democratic party as the "moon-faced despot," exploded a shell under the feet of Vice President Stevenson that ought to make him throw up works or change his position. Mr. Reed said:

The vice president adorns his speech with a phrase which gives me a calm and solemn joy. He says his party should be kept in power because the senate bill should be administered by its friends. Its friends? Who are they? The Democrats? Why, after the most careful reading of all Democratic speeches and platforms for years, I thought this senate bill was a foundling laid on the party doorsteps by base persons who are going to be incontinently drummed out of the family.

It is said there are seventeen persons in and around Clinton who have lived four score years and one who is 96 years old.

A Bright Comedy.

Last night at the Grand a select audience was present to enjoy the capital performance of the Dumas comedy, "In Society," in three acts, given by a strong company, with Mrs. Brown-Potter and Mr. Kyle Ballew in the cast as the principal characters. The play is of the French type as to situations, dialogue and staging, and by many it was regarded as the most entertaining performance we have had this season.

Such an exacting production calls for finished talent, and had the author been present he could not have found any flaw in the performance anywhere.

Mrs. Potter, who has a world-wide reputation in her special line of work, pleasing, graceful and captivating, won many new admirers. Several years ago she appeared here in the old opera house in "Loyal Love," and made a very favorable impression. She has improved greatly in her art since then and is now considered among the leading American actresses as to merit, grace and beauty.

Mr. Ballew is the leading man with the company, and there is no better exponent of emotional and comedy roles on the stage to-day than he. He divided the honor with Mrs. Potter last night. The audience was quietly enthusiastic--quiet because all wanted to catch every word of the lines.

The company departed this morning for Terre Haute.

Anniversary Celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Head gave a card party last evening at their home on East William street to celebrate the tenth anniversary of their marriage. There were present about forty guests who played progressive euchre. A handsome bisque ornament was given as a prize to the person who won the most number of points. Supper was served after the card game. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Head received a large number of presents. The guests were: Messrs. Murphy, Needham, I. Shoemaker, John Swygart, Robert Taggart, George Jenkins, Eugene Head, William Boettger, M. Brown, Dr. Eddy and their wives; Misses Brown, Humble, Grace Macmaster, Daisy Dodson, Mollie Shoemaker, Hattie Hamer, and Messrs. Robert Humble, Richard Macmasters, Helm Whitehurst, Roy Kinsman, Harry Haines and P. C. Carroll.

THE YOUNG CHRISTIANS.

State Convention to be Held at Galesburg--Hope of the Church.

The eyes of 100,000 Christian Endeavorers of Illinois, representing many sects and languages, will be turned this week towards Galesburg, where the annual convention of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of Illinois will be in session, beginning on Thursday.

The first Christian Endeavor society was organized February 2, 1881, by the young people of Williston church of Portland, Me., of which the Rev. Francis E. Clark was pastor, and followed a revival. By the end of that year the number of societies was six, in as many different states. June 2, 1882, the first Christian Endeavor convention was held in Williston church. From this on the growth of the organization was rapid. March 27, 1884, the first junior society was organized by the Rev. J. V. Cowan, of Tabor, Iowa.

Illinois joined the movement early. The first society in this state was organized in the Bethany Union church at Washington Heights in April, 1882. The progress at first was slow, for in 1884 there were only six societies, with a membership of 318. In 1885 the record was almost unchanged. In 1886 the number of societies had increased to thirty-nine, with a membership of 1,600. In 1887 came a great impetus to the work, the number of societies increasing to 102, and the membership to 7,000. The largest society reported in 1887 was the Armour Mission, Chicago, with a membership of 156. That year 1887, local unions were organized in Chicago, Decatur, Springfield, Bloomington and Evanston and the prosecution of this work of union was urged on all the towns where there were several societies.

The state union was organized in October, 1886, at a conference held in the Second Presbyterian church at Bloomington, called by President C. B. Holdredge, who was then state superintendent. This conference was the beginning of systematic work. Mr. Holdredge was chosen president. A committee empowered to draft a constitution and bylaws met in Chicago April 1, 1887, formally adopting a constitution that had been framed previously after much correspondence and consultation. At this time E. A. West, of Decatur, was elected vice-president and J. W. Howell secretary and treasurer.

Thirty-five delegates were present at this conference. At Galesburg this week 1200 to 1500 are expected. These thirty-five represented but ten societies, while at Galesburg over 2,000 societies will be represented.

Make No Mistake.

The Royal Lyceum Course at the Tabernacle this season will surpass everything of the kind ever seen in Decatur. The Decca Grand Concert alone, Nov. 13, will be worth the price asked for the whole course; and yet a book of five tickets admitting to all five entertainments, can be had for $1. Following is the list of attractions booked with dates of appearance:

Decca Grand Concert Co., Nov. 13.

Leland T. Powers, impersonator, December 12.

Dr. James Hedley, lecturer, Jan. 29.

Hon. John T. Graves, orator, Feb. 21.

Boston Temple Male Quartet, March 6.

All tickets transferable. No red tape. Reserved seats at Otto E. Curtis & Bro's. first week in November. Tickets now on sale. The ladies who are canvassing the city report hundreds of customers already. Buy a "Royal" course ticket this year and you will make no mistake. The Boston Temples, for instance, have been singing together for about twenty years, and are without doubt the finest male quartet in the world. Each attraction is simply superb, and brought here at great expense. To secure a course ticket to five such entertainments for $1, is one of the most remarkable chances of a life time. 17-4t

There are 13 members of the Bellow-Potter company, but Manager M. B. Rice and the stars are not superstitious on that point. They admit that the only Jonah they have is a funeral procession. If they meet one while in a city business is sure to be bad. While at Cape Town they met one on their way to rehearsal one afternoon, and when they turned a corner they found the opera house in flames. Before starting on a tour out of New York, a funeral procession crossed their path, and for three weeks they played to losing business. They played an engagement of six months at Calcutta, India. It was during the season of the plague, when the death rate for a time was 250 a day. But business was good all the time because the people sought something to make them forget the presence of the death angel, and a comedy play was put on every night.

This city of Clinton will henceforth have no deficiency in the water supply. Two good wells have been sunk under the management of Marshall J. E. Moffett, and the supply struck within a hundred feet is phenomenal. The yield is now over 200,000 gallons a day, and it is thought with the third tube the additional supply over the old wells will be 300,000 per day. This will supply the city and the Central shops, the revenue from which will alone pay the running expenses of Clinton's water system.

ILLINOIS SANITARIANS.

An Important Meeting to be Held in Springfield Nov. 13-14.

At a meeting of the health officers of the state, held in Springfield May 18, 1894, an organization was effected known as the Illinois state board of health auxiliary sanitary association. Its objects were to make every sanitary officer, whether a physician or not, a corresponding member of the state board of health, so that the central organization would be kept in touch with the sanitary conditions prevailing in every section of the state, and enable the state board to place in the hands of each officer sanitary information and instructions for carrying out the provisions of the law of the state for the protection of public health, the prevention and suppression of contagious and preventable diseases, and to endeavor to secure such additional legislation as may from time to time become necessary.

The state board of health has called a meeting of the association, to be held in Springfield Nov. 13 and 14, and it is urged that every city, town and township have one or more representatives present, and that each one come with definite clear cut views of the most important sanitary requirements of his locality in particular and of the state in general, with his ideas of their remedy, whether by legislation, voluntary co-operations or otherwise.

Arrangements are being made for the attendance of some of the most experienced sanitarians of the country, who will be present and give the association the benefit of their counsel.

See It.

"In Old Kentucky," the new spectacular play of which so much has been written, and which comes to the Grand to-night, is a powerful and captivating story of Kentucky life. It is an elaborate scenic production as well, representing scenes in the mountains and blue grass regions of Kentucky with marvelous fidelity. The company is said to be an exceptionally strong one, and it will be safe to venture the assertion that the engagement will be a profitable one, for no other production of the past disastrous season has met with such great financial success. "In Old Kentucky" made a fortune for its owner last year.

New Officers.

The Ladies' Home Missionary Society of Grace M. E. church held a meeting and elected officers at the home of Mrs. Robert Faries yesterday afternoon. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. A. W. Conklin; first vice president, Mrs. Dr. Hobbs; second vice president, Mrs. J. H. Bouring; third vice president, Mrs. Spence; treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Elwood; librarian, Mrs. R. Faries. The society voted to have Kate Cray deliver her course of six lectures on her art tours to begin Nov. 19.

M. JOHNSON'S LONG RIDE.

He Covers 151 Miles in 20 Hours and 25 Minutes—Other Cycling News.

M. Johnson, jr., who left here the other day for St. Louis to make the return trip by wheel, arrived home this morning at 2:40 a. m. He left St. Louis yesterday morning at 5:15 and for the first 50 miles he took turns at walking and riding, the heavy roads and sand making progress very slow. The distance rode was 151 miles, from the east end of the St. Louis bridge to Lincoln Square, and the time consumed was 20 hours and 25 minutes. Considering everything the ride was a splendid one, and anyone who has ever rode over that course knows of the hardships and annoyances the rider is compelled to undergo to complete the trip. Johnson, however, pluckily pedaled through, and although he is a trifle stiff and sore from the experience, he says he greatly enjoyed the trip.

Irving Woods and DeWitt Avery, of Jacksonville, and J. P. Fogarty, of Springfield, rode to this city from Springfield yesterday in three hours and eight minutes, a distance of 44½ miles from the capitol building at Springfield to Lincoln Square. L. E. Rogers, of this city, has covered the same distance in two hours and fifty minutes, eighteen minutes faster. This is likely to cause a contest in the near future over that distance. L. E. Rogers is willing to go against the record he made before and the Springfield boys may contest with him.

There is a great deal of talk going on among the bicycle boys for another race this fall yet. The proposed event will undoubtedly be a road race, and the talk is to have it run over the Decoration day road race course. The Decatur Cycling club will probably take some action on it right away. There are still others who would like to see a championship race for Macon county riders.

Klingor of Torre Haute, who lowered it half an hour before on the same track. —Torre Haute Express.

SUSPECTS ARRESTED

Two Suspicious Characters Taken Into Custody

SUSPECTED OF BEING TRAIN ROBBERS.

While Two Others Still More Closely Answering the Description Visit Point Royal, Va., Make Purchases and Depart Unmolested.

Arrested on Suspicion of Being Train Robbers.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The city police have arrested two men suspected of having been implicated in the Aquia creek train robbery Friday night. One of them, named John Smith, was locked up for being suspiciously, but so far no information of the robbery has been obtained from him, and it is doubtful if he is one of the robbers. The other arrested man calls himself George F. Livingstone, and claims to have lived in Washington twenty-four years. He does not, however, appear to be well acquainted with the city. Livingstone has been spending money quite freely for two or three days past, and had bought new clothing, with the exception of a shirt, which is begrimed with coal dust, which fact gives the officers hope that a good clew has been found. When locked up Livingstone had $55, which he said he had left him. He had been a telegraph operator and train dispatcher, but intended never to work again. He will be held pending an investigation.

Two Other Suspects Allowed to Depart Unmolested.

POINT ROYAL, Va., Oct. 17.—Two suspicious men came here about dark Monday night from toward the Rappahannock country. One was heavy set, the other tall, with dark brown hair and mustache and high cheek bones. The tall man bought a black worsted sack suit and wore a grey Alpine hat. He paid for the clothes with a $10 gold piece and sixteen silver pieces. He carried an old-fashioned valise, which seemed heavy and was handled with care. The heavy set man bought a black woolen cheviot sack suit. He paid a $20 gold piece. Both bought canvas telescopic sawblades here. They asked for information about trains and left town about 6 p. m. At 1 a. m. yesterday they took a Norfolk & Western train for Shenandoah junction at Riverton, two miles off. They had on the new suits when they took the train. A barber here who shaved the tall man, whose beard was over a week old, says he bears a striking resemblance to the one of Carter, suspected of being implicated in the train robbery of last Friday, published in the papers. They made conflicting statements and were exceedingly nervous. In leaving town they separated, but whistled each other together outside of town.

CARRIED INTO COURT.

The Quarrel Between the Two Factions of Nebraska Democracy.

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 17.—The quarrel between the two factions of Nebraska's democracy worked its way into the supreme court yesterday, when the bolting or administration wing of the party began mandamus proceedings to compel the secretary of state to place the names of candidates of their ticket on the official ballot as the regular party nominee. The oral arguments before the court were of great length, reciting the work of the two conventions at Omaha, and claiming for the bolters the right to be classed as the only democratic party in the state with any standing before the national organization. In connection with mandamus proceedings, the petitioners, along with the secretary of state, united in requesting an opinion from the court on the question of allowing the name of any candidate to appear twice on the ballot as the nominee of two or more parties. While rendering no decision on either case, the judges intimated that their ruling on the latter point would be as before, that a name can be printed but once on the ballot. A decision on the mandamus case is expected soon.

THE HOWARD CASE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The lawyers representing Levi P. The judge signed the writ yesterday afternoon, and the petition for Howard's release is now filed in the circuit court. Mr. Morton, who was in the city yesterday morning, said that he would stand by Howard until the case was thoroughly tested and settled, and added that Howard could resume his former duties if he chose to do so.

SEND THEM TO THE COUNTRY.

There's Where Everybody Makes Lots to Somebody.

"I have had a young married couple visiting me during the last week," remarked a young woman who is said to be overbearing, "and I was very much surprised to find how many distinct species of foolish humanity two people can represent. They spooned and smiled and simpered. They held hands when the weather was so warm that you had to use a fan in order to pump air into your lungs. There were kissing socials and hugging contests until I really felt that I had no right to live and bother these two cooing doves by always being in their way. It was very embarrassing to me, but they didn't mind it in the least. You see, I'd forgot all about them and go bounding into a room and interrupting a dialogue something like this:

"Who's my little wifey-wifey?"

"I is."

"Smack!"

"Who's your hubby-hub?"

"Oo, of course, my besseed, angel boy."

"A perfect deluge of smacks!"

"Do oo love your hubby?"

"Nop!"

"Well, kiss 'oor hubby."

"And just there I'd usually say:

"Yes do kiss him, Alice—just for a change, you know," and then I'd run for my life. In half an hour or so I'd sneak back and find little wifey sitting in hubby's lap, telling him the greatest string of fibs about his beautiful eyes and pretty hair that you ever heard."

"Oh, I've seen some pretty bad cases, but this one is unrivaled. I'll wager that a like pair of simpletons couldn't be found in the whole country. Of course everyone envies them their happiness—if being absolutely entranced is their happiness—but it is plain that spooning is more fun for the participants than that it is for the unfortunate third person who has to endure until she swears a solemn oath that she'll be an old maid all her life before she'll make such a spectacle of herself."—Chicago Record.

Will Know Better Hereafter.

It was Mr. Tankersley's first nomination for office, and he was unfamiliar with some of the time-honored customs and traditions that pertained to the position he occupied before the community.

Hence it was that when he had invited all the loungers in the saloon, numbering a dozen or so, to take a drink at his expense he carefully handed a ten-dollar bill over the bar.

"Thank you, Mr. Tankersley," said the bartender, dropping the greenback into the till, placing his elbows on the counter and regarding the luckless candidate with amiable condescension.—Chicago Tribune.

Not Utterly Degraded.

CANNOT ACCEPT.

Rev. G. S. Williams Will Not Become Pastor of the Baptist Church.

This forenoon I. A. Buckingham received this telegram which will be read with general regret by members of the First Baptist church:

"BRISTOL, TENN., Oct. 17.—I. A. Buckingham, Decatur, Ill.: Will have to decline call. Will write particulars. "G. S. WILLIAMS."

More than ten days ago the Baptist congregation by vote extended a unanimous call to Rev. Williams, after having heard him deliver two sermons, and it was hoped and expected that he would accept the flattering call. But since the news reached Bristol the people there got a move on themselves and by frequent meetings and counter offers made Bristol so attractive that the minister decided that he would stay there. His letter of explanation will be awaited with interest.

It is desired that every member of the church shall attend the regular prayer meeting service to-night. Doubtless the pulpit committee will submit another name for consideration. Let every member be on hand promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Its Fame Will Live.

The World's Columbian Exposition marked the climax of human achievement. It will live in memory of the crowning glory of modern times. No other development of the closing century can compare with it in practical benefit to mankind.

Who that exhibited is not proud of it? Who that failed to exhibit does not regret the omission? The former are the people of to-day. The latter are relics of the past.

No honor so high as that embodied in an award at the fair. Competition was world-wide, the fruits of ripest experience and noblest endeavors were submitted for examination.

Honest tribunals, composed of eminent scientists, examined and passed upon the claims of exhibitors. Their judgement based on inquiry and justice, proves conclusively the value of any article they commend.

Their approval was stamped on

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

It received the highest award at the fair from a jury headed by the Chief Chemist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Dr. Price's was officially recommended for highest leavening power, purity, keeping qualities and general excellence.
